

reporter Vermont House of Representatives 1884, 1886, 1890, 1892, and 1894; Senate reporter in 1896; in 1909 removed to Burlington, having been given the official reportership of Chittenden County in place of Franklin County; secretary Vermont Bar Association since 1890. Member of the National Guard 20 years; private in Ransom Guards, St. Albans; lieutenant and captain of Co. B; major and lieutenant colonel 1st Regiment; served as such with regiment in Spanish-American War; had command most of the time, while Colonel Clarke commanded battalion or was absent sick; was promoted colonel and chief of staff to Governor Stickney 1902. Is a Republican; has held some minor offices. Member of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Member of Franklin Lodge No. 4, F. & A. M., of St. Albans; Champlain Chapter No. 1, R. A. M.; past commander Lafayette Commandery No. 3, K. T.; member of Owl Club of St. Albans; Ethan Allen Club and Algonquin Club of Burlington.

MINARD, WILL FRANK, Waterbury. Physician and surgeon. Born Hinesburg, May 13, 1867; son of Roswell Mason Bill and Maranda (Kenyon) Minard. Educated at Hinesburg public schools; Bristol Academy; Green Mountain Seminary, Waterbury Center; began study of medicine with Dr. G. E. E. Sparhawk, Burlington, 1884; graduated from Hahnemann Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa., 1887, with degree of M. D. In 1886 married Clarissa C. Smith of Waterbury Center; one daughter, Marguerite Maranda. Practiced with Dr. G. E. E. Sparhawk of Burlington 18 months; removed to Waterbury 1889; has since practiced there; was health officer 13 years; has opened a sanatorium there. Secretary of Vermont State Homeopathic Medical Society several years, and instrumental in having its first transactions published; president of the above society 1894; on board of medical censors several years. Is a Republican. In religious belief a Unitarian. A member of Alhambra Encampment No. 20, I. O. O. F.; and Winooski Lodge No. 49, F. & A. M.

MITIGUY, WILFRED EDWARD, Enosburg Falls. Merchant. Born Samsonville June 28, 1878; son of Andrew and Eloida (Reeves) Mitiguy. Educated at Enosburg Falls High School. In 1904 married Lillian Maxine McCarthy of Barre. Clerk for M. P. Perley & Co. 1895-1902, when he formed partnership with Mr. Perley, carrying a line of clothing, men's furnishings, boots and shoes; in 1907 the store was burned, when they erected the Perley block, where they have since occupied a store. A Roman Catholic. Chief ranger of Catholic Order of Foresters.

MONTGOMERY, MARSHALL, St. Johnsbury. Retired lawyer. Born Walden, March 26, 1839; son of Sereno and Hannah (Foster) Montgomery. Educated in the public schools of Walden, and Peacham Academy, graduating in class of 1859. In 1873 married Flora Sibley of Laconia, N. H.; they had two daughters, Mary (died in infancy), and Grace E. Read law with Bliss N. Davis, Danville; admitted to the Vermont Bar 1869; states attorney Caledonia County 1884-6; referee in bankruptcy 1900-10, when he retired on account of ill health. Enlisted May 15, 1861, in the 3rd Vermont Regiment, Co. G; was promoted Nov. 21, 1863, to the captaincy of Co. D, 10th U. S. Regiment of colored troops, and served continuously until May 17, 1866, when he was discharged at Galveston, Texas; his term of federal service was five years and two days, the longest record of any man in Vermont; was in all the battles of the 3rd Vermont for two and one-half years, and in two engagements with the 10th colored regiment. Is a Republican; served on school committee for several years. Member of South Congregational Church. Member of Chamberlain Post, G. A. R., of which he was at one time commander.

MOODY, GEORGE EUGENE, Waterbury. Promoter and farmer. Born Waterbury, Jan. 6, 1845; son of George W. and Lucia (Eddy) Moody. Educated in the public schools of Waterbury and People's Academy, Morrisville. In 1866 married Alma Huse of Waterbury, who died in 1905; they had two children, Inez Eugenia (deceased) and Mark Huse. Began farming under an indebtedness for his farm, later buying and shipping all kinds of live stock and produce; purchased timber lands and mills and manufactured and sold lumber, later turning attention to development of water powers for electricity; with Geo. H. Almon of Montpelier (Moody & Al-

Encyclopedia, Vermont biography : a series of authentic biographical sketches of the representative men of Vermont and sons of

Source Information

---

Record Url: http://interactive.ancestry.com/22096/dvm\_LocHist007779-00174-0

Source Information: Ancestry.com. Encyclopedia, Vermont biography : a series of authentic biographical sketches of the representative men of Vermont and sons of [database on-line]. Provo, UT: Ancestry.com Operations Inc, 2005.
Original data: Dodge, Prentiss C.. Encyclopedia, Vermont biography : a series of authentic biographical sketches of the representative men of Vermont and sons of Vermont in other states : 1912. Burlington, Vt.: Ullery Pub. Co., 1912.